This book is first of all produced for the entire student body, but it will have the most lasting significance for the senior class of 1964. They will cherish it in future years as the final record of a period whose hopes and aspirations were still untarnished by the harsh touch of the world. It is to this group—the seniors of 1964—that we respectfully dedicate this book, in the hope that in future years it may help them relive their high school days.

THE OFFICE STAFF

MR. BILL TODD

MISS SHIRLEY MURRAY

Mr. Bill Todd, senior high counselor, busies himself with many extra duties. In addition to helping students select their class programs, he guides seniors' decisions on colleges and vocations. He also assists Mr. Davies with routine affairs.

Miss Shirley Murray, junior high counselor, in addition to helping students lay out class programs, supervises various special tests given to students throughout the year.

MRS. ILENE BRAWNER

MISS MARJORIE CARSTENS

Miss Marjorie Carstens, librarian, spends much of her time finding books for students who never mastered the Dewey decimal system. She also keeps the books filed, in order, and in good repair. In addition to her library duties, she finds time to arrange clever bulletin boards in the halls.

Mrs. Ilene Brawner, nurse, sponsors the Health Careers club and sees that the students of Rosedale remain in good health—the latter task includes sending home those students and teachers who may have contracted such diseases as measles or mumps.

Mrs. Katherine Hunter, secretary to the principal.

Mrs. Frances Williams, registrar.

Miss Judy Mairs, attendance clerk.

Mrs. Patricia Patti, treasurer.

Education is a process of growth—in knowledge, in stature, in mentality, and experience. Growth implies change. On the division pages for each section, we have tried to show this growth in the seniors' careers. Starting as raw intellect, they are now more "refined" and intelligent. A change can also be seen in the teachers who have sponsored the class through the six years at Rosedale.

GUIDING LIGHTS

These are the people who have helped the class of '64 through the past six years. The seniors, as well as the rest of the student body, owe Rosedale's faculty a hearty "Thanks!" To illustrate their part in helping the students, teachers are shown working with a senior student or students.

MRS. PHOEBE MAY (upper left), while teaching junior high English, has sponsored the class of '64 for six years.

MR. WILLIAM STOSKOPF (upper right), affectionately known to some as "Uncle Willie," directs the band and orchestra, and works with special groups here in the grade schools.

MISS JOAN SPANGLER (left), French and German teacher, replaced Mrs. Sharon Nichols at the beginning of the second semester.

MR. FRANK HOWARD (lower left), science and audio-visual director, spends what little spare time he has helping students with special projects.

MR. JAMES SHEPHERD (lower right), who teaches drama and junior English, has contributed much to Rosedale's drama department in the years he has been here.

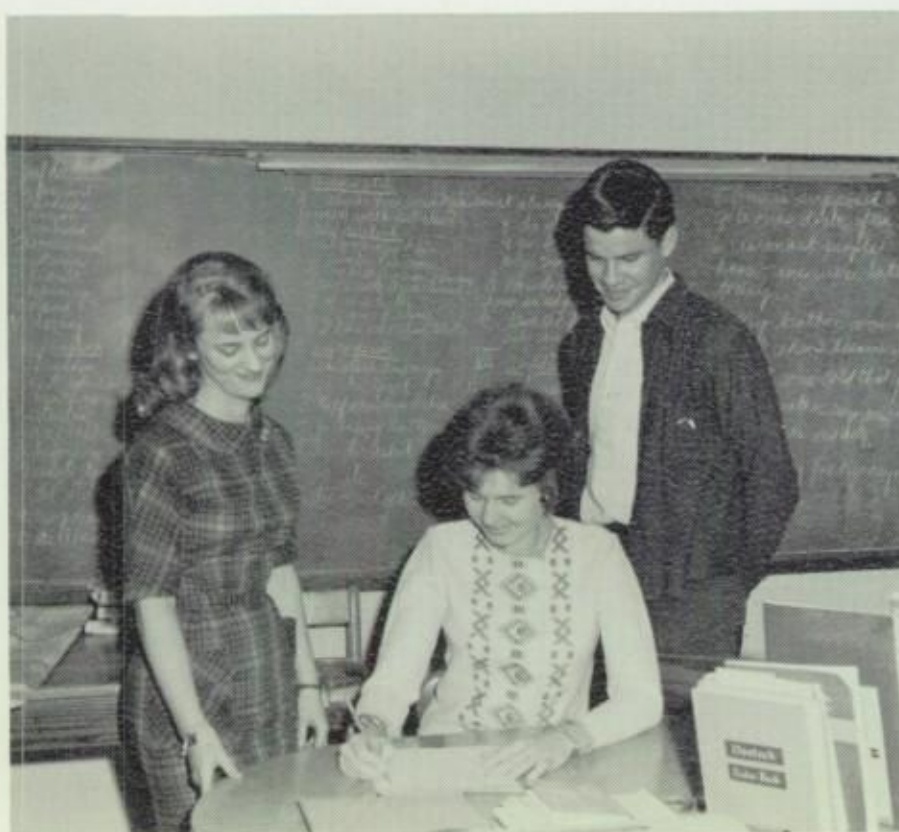

MR. LELAND HESS (upper right), junior high math instructor, each fall helps in the training and coaching of Rosedale's football team.

MISS BARBARA HUBBARD (upper left), supervises the girls of Rosedale in learning to prepare well balanced meals.

MR. GEORGE HAWKS (center right), supervises boy's intramurals and helps the senior high boys keep in shape in the physical education classes.

MR. RALPH BRIGHTWELL (lower right), although teaching history five hours a day, finds time to cope with problems presented by the Pep club.

MR. CALVIN DAY (upper left), junior high geography and math teacher, lays the foundation for high school basketball by coaching the seventh grade team.

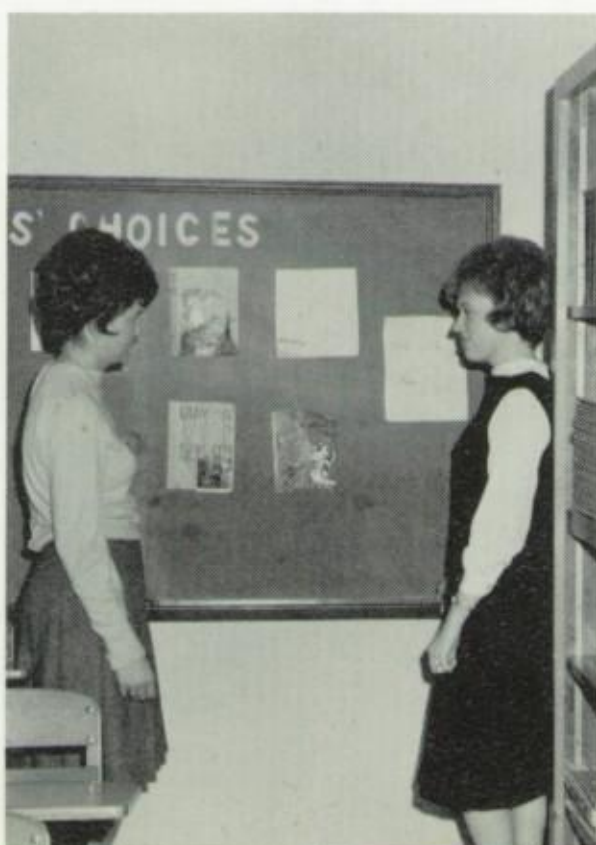

MISS SUZANNE FAIRBANK (upper right), director of the art department and sponsor of the Brush and Pencil club, leads the work of Rosedale's "Rembrandts."

MR. ROBERT BLAZER (center left), enjoys the smells of pine and cedar in his world of saws and nails. Rosedale boys have turned out beautiful pieces of furniture under his direction.

MRS. CAROL REID (left), who instructs junior high English classes, also works as a sponsor of the Y-Teens.

MRS. BILLIE McCORD (center), sponsor of the junior high Pep club, also teaches junior high English classes.

MRS. KAYE SCOTT, music instructor, has provided Rosedale with many wonderful vocal music programs.

MR. RICHARD KOHLER (upper right), instructs auto mechanics during the school year and drivers' education during the summer. He also sponsors the Safety club.

MISS OLGA ALBER (center right), heads the business department. Her teaching capability assures secretarial jobs for many Rosedale students.

MRS. HELEN FOSMIRE (lower left), history 8 and orientation, helps junior high students accept their responsibilities to the school by sponsoring the junior high Student Council.

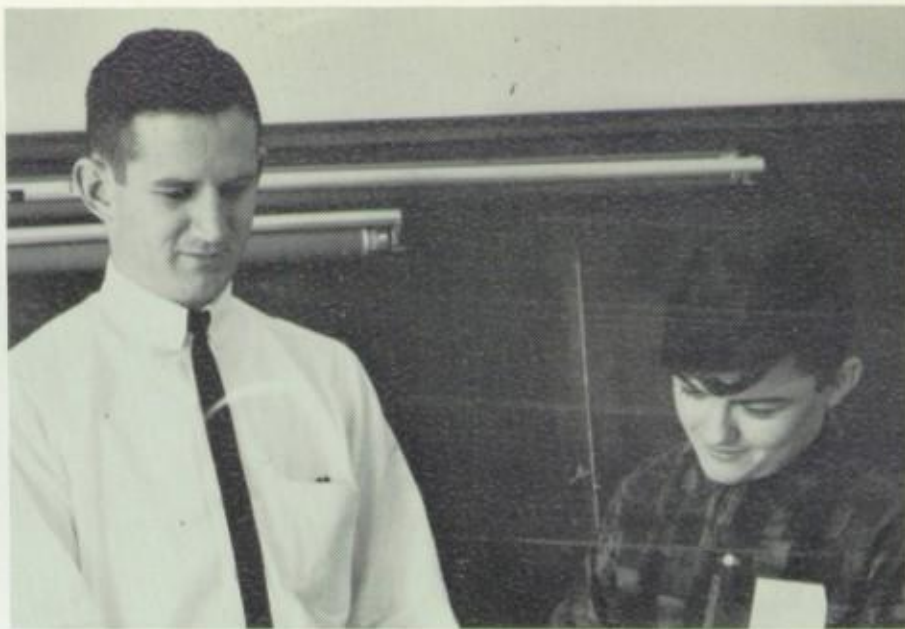

MR. LESTER PETTIBONE (center), business instructor, seems to have stood up well under the noise of constantly clacking typewriters.

MISS EDITH YOUMANS (lower right), English teacher, also busies herself with senior high Y-Teens work.

MISS ALICE McTAGGART, head of Rosedale's English department, guides the Future Teachers' club, in addition to her junior and senior English classes.

MR. ROBERT TAGUE, in addition to his social science classes, spends much of his time after school and in the evenings coaching B-team basketball.

MRS. KAYE TAGUE, junior high physical education teacher, has sponsored the class of '64 for the past four years.

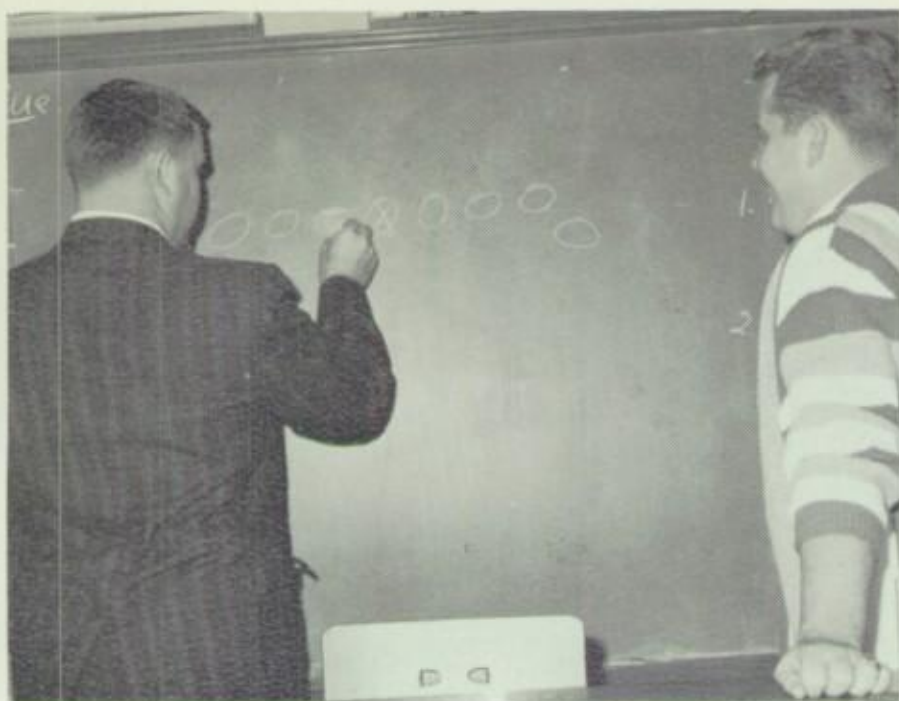

MISS SUSIE MOORE, who replaced Mrs. Jacqueline Humpert at the end of the first semester, leads senior high girls' physical education classes.

MR. JOHN RUCKER, who spends much of his time helping students work on model homes, teaches drafting.

MR. GLENN HOY, a senior sponsor, in addition to instructing eighth grade history, is head varsity football coach.

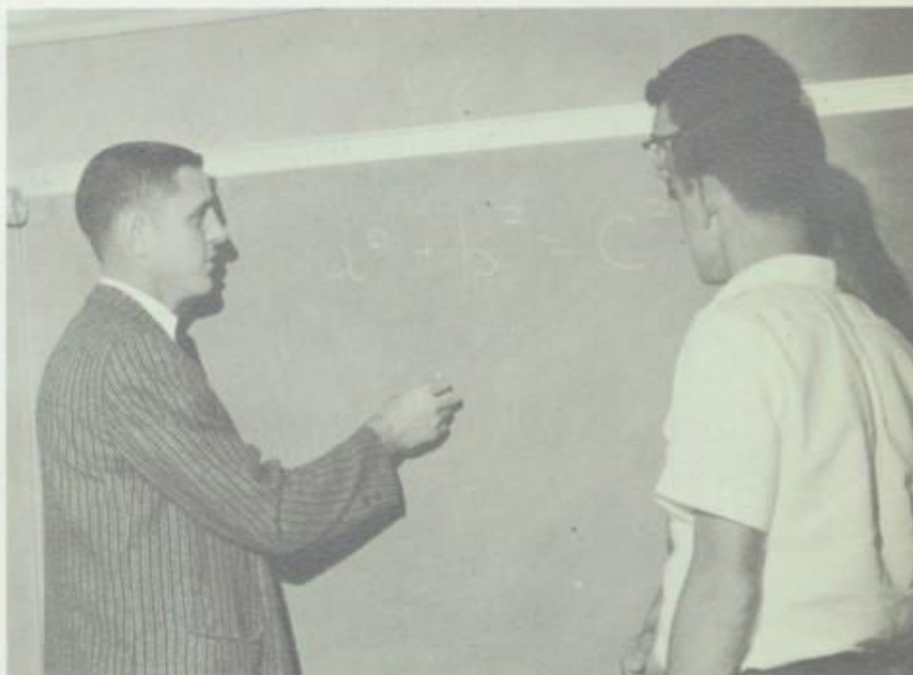

MR. NOEL MARTIN, in charge of four general science classes and seventh grade science, finds time to help coach football.

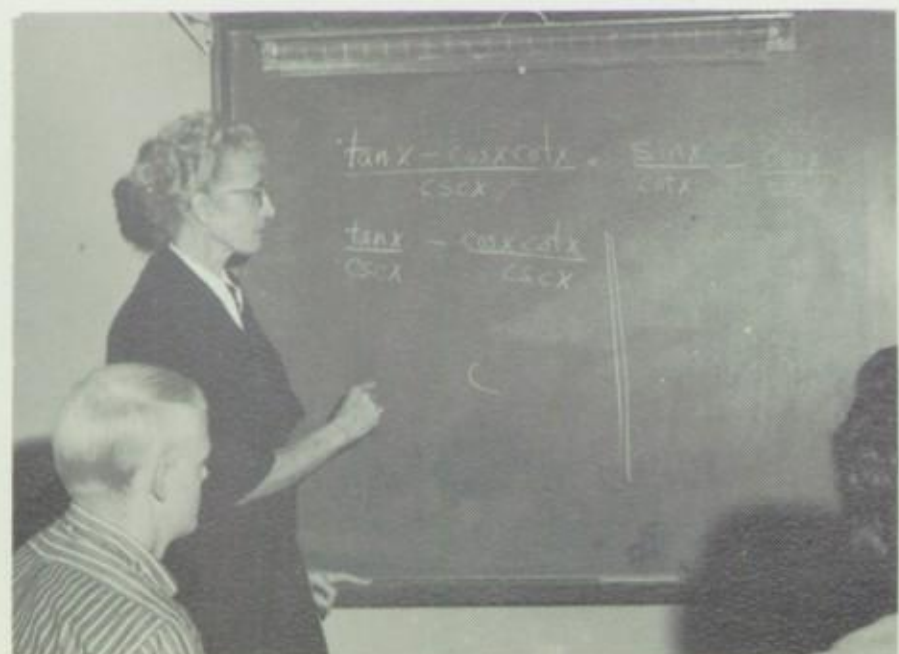

MR. PHILIP KEELER, known to publications students as "Uncle Phil," spends much time working with the newspaper and the annual. He also has several English classes.

MR. JAMES CROSS, in addition to his physical education duties, coaches eighth grade basketball and handles book rentals.

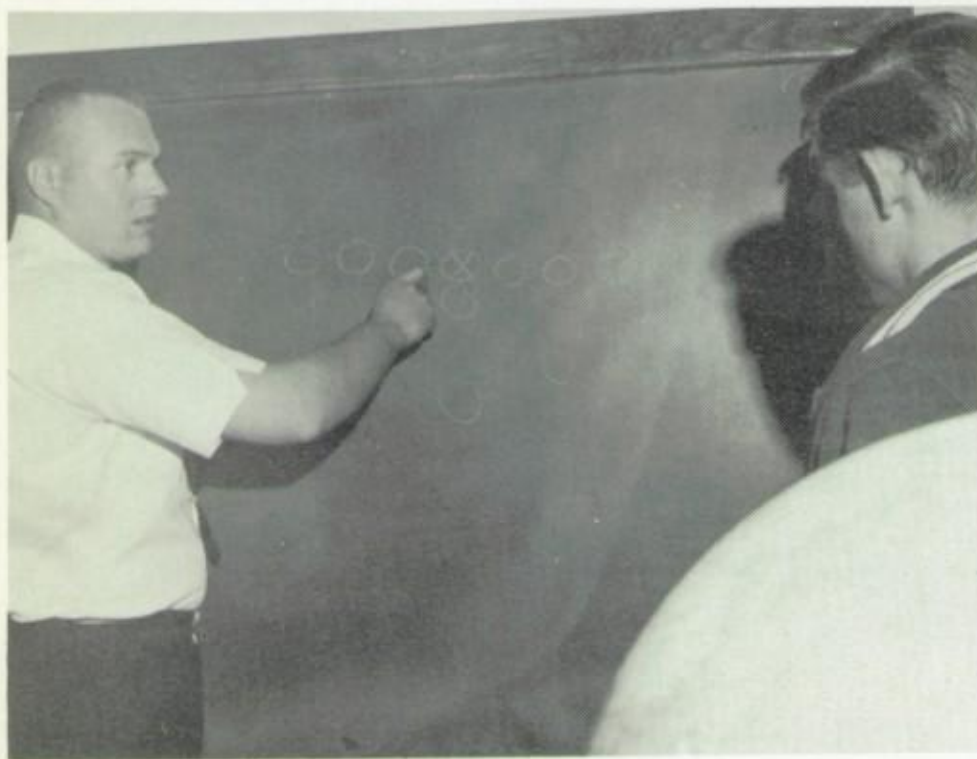

MR. ELDON MILBURN, who spends more time with the basketball team than do the boys' parents during the season, teaches junior high math and algebra.

MISS ESTHER NICKLIN, senior high math instructor, sponsors the Student Council for the senior nign.

MRS. VIRGINIA JONES has taken over the position of Spanish teacher and Spanish club sponsor from Miss Ruth Vawter who retired last year.

MRS. IONE GEORGE (upper right), in addition to her home economics classes, finds time to keep the cafeteria running smoothly.

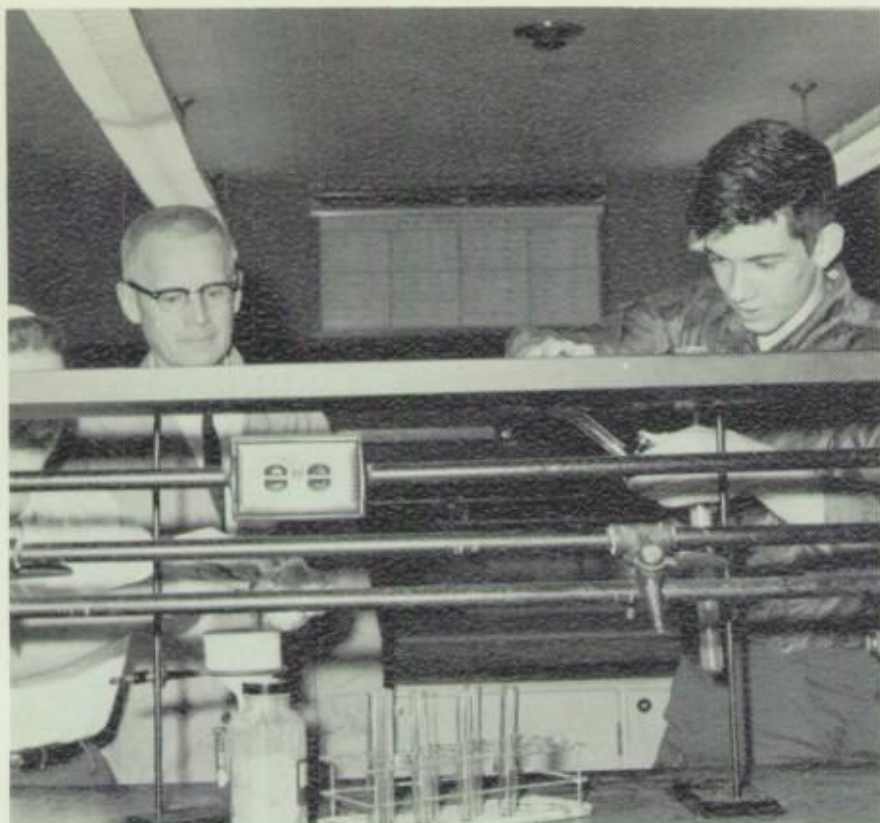

MRS. ROSALEA SHEPARD (upper left), gives junior high students an opportunity to get a good basis in English.

MR. DAVID CROCKETT (center left), teaches a wide range of social sciences, from sociology to geography. He helps coach football.

MR. GEORGE HIATT (upper left), known for his appropriate jokes, teaches chemistry and helps students with special projects.

MR. ART LAWRENCE (upper right), junior high math teacher and head senior sponsor, coaches Rosedale's track team, including the league champion cross-country team.

MR. ROSCOE BROWN (right), Rosedale's biology instructor, sponsors the senior class and coaches the golf team.

MR. C. D. HOLDERMAN (lower right), helps Rosedale's boys learn the art of metal crafting.

MR. WILLIAM SIPES (lower left), looks out for the welfare of the R-club in addition to teaching algebra to Rosedale students. In his spare time he referees high school basketball games.

AN American History class is a good place to find seniors hard at work. Perhaps even in grade school at Thomas Edison they worked as hard on their history as they are doing now, but things have gotten a bit more serious now, and often current history provides sober warnings that soon these students will be part of an adult world.

SEVENTH GRADE HOMEROOM 101

Mr. David Crockett

Linda Morgan, left, and Sharon Johnston held positions of editor-in-chief this year, Miss Morgan for the first semester, and Miss Johnston second semester.

On this group rested the responsibility of the school paper, the Rosedalian, and the annual, the Mt. Marty, plus any publicity for the school in general. Correspondents for the Kansas City Star and the Kansas City Kansan were also on the staff.

MR. PHILIP R. KEELER Advisor

ROSEDALIAN - MT. MARTY STAFF

Diana Swearingen, left, was circulation manager this year, while Susie Cornelius and Maxi Nilson were reporters. Miss Nilson, Rosedale's foreign exchange student, was in the class for first semester only.

Previews and follow-ups on all sport competition were written by (left to right) Dennis Eidson, Steve Keeler, and Steve Harrison. Eidson served as sports editor first semester, and Keeler second semester. Keeler also wrote the column "Cat Tracks." (Harrison was sports editor last year.)

Business manager for the Rosedalian was Pat Kreisman (right); Erma Martin (left) served as her assistant. They were responsible for financial matters for both publications.

Serving as columnists for the Rosedalian were (left) Jo Anna Shipley, who had the "Jo's Jems" column last year, and Janice Hughey, who wrote the "Check This" column this year.

Student leaders, such as those who make up the Student Council, exert the force of their leadership all through school. Perhaps some of the students who attended Whitmore grade school (opposite page) are among the members of this group, the class representatives of 1964.

CECILIA

ROSEDALE'S AMBASSADORS---

A school's reputation is no better than its public image, and in the band Rosedale has a powerful and effective good will ambassador, not only to the immediate area, but also in other cities.

Striking and attractive in their well-tailored uniforms, the band has appeared in the American Royal parade, the Argentine parade, the Quindaro parade, and the United Funds Drive. They participated in the KU Band Day at Lawrence, the EKL Festival, the PTA Founders Day program, concerts, head). This group not only functioned as a majorette group, but also were playing members when the band appeared in concert.

HAVE HORN, WILL TRAVEL--- and at all football games.

The pep band, a selected part of the band, plays at basketball games, pep assemblies, and recognition assemblies.

None the less important are the majorettes who strut in front of the band at all times, and who perform at halftime at basketball games.

Mr. William Stoskopf is the director.

GENE KELTNER, DRUM MAJOR

Band officers this year were, left to right: Gene Keltner (vice-president), Earl Trussell (student director), Jo Anna Shipley (secretary), and Steve Nance (president). This group had a big part in the direction of the magazine sale which each year furnishes a large part of the finances for building up the uniform fund and purchasing new instruments.

DRIVE SAFELY!

Safety council members (left) work to show Rosedale students the importance of safe driving and to improve hazardous conditions throughout the Rosedale area. For the past few years Rosedale has had an exceptionally good record, and has won a number of safe driving awards.

Each student driving to school must be a member of the Safety club, and must have his car safety checked.

Each homeroom in the senior high is represented in the council, and any senior high school student is eligible to join the Safety club.

Marc Terrass and Mr. Kohler are shown with many of the Safety club's awards.

Among other activities, the club sponsors a safety queen contest, an essay contest, a driving rodeo, and each spring sends representatives to a safety conference in Topeka.

STUDENT COUNCILS

"Sell these tickets! Promote these new rules! Find out what the students think! Guide those visitors!" These are just a few of the demands that members of the Rosedale Student Councils must obey when an occasion arises.

Each year the senior high Student Council sponsors a play; this year their presentation was "1984." Both junior and senior high Councils serve as guides at school functions and strive to regulate student participation in school activities.

Among the language organizations at Rosedale, the German club and the French club are the largest. The French club has approximately thirty-eight members and the German club approximately sixty-five.

The clubs hold their meetings during after-school hours and work to become better acquainted with the ways of the people in other parts of the world. Food from the studied foreign lands is served, and dances and songs are enjoyed by everyone. Pen pals are selected by the students so that they may have a chance to study the foreign languages better.

Mrs. Vivian Mortimer is sponsor of the German club, and the French club is under the direction of Miss Joan Spangler, who replaced Mrs. Sharon Nichols at midterm.

Faculty sponsor Mr. Ralph Brightwell was assisted by Mr. Wanamaker, Mrs. Mortimer, Mr. Pettibone, Mrs. Scott, Mrs. Tague, Miss Murray, and Miss Fairbank.

THAT A GREAT TEAM NEEDS!

JUNIOR HIGH PEP CLUB

Approximately 130 students from the seventh, eighth, and ninth grade classes are members of the junior high Pep club. The Pep club's main function is to lead cheers at home football and basketball games and at recognition assemblies, but each spring the club sponsors a junior high dance and names a queen and three attendants.

Cheerleaders chosen early in the fall were Nancy Petty, Judy Rhine, Tina Johnson, Helen Smith (head), Cheryl Folkens, Ann Bridges, and Linda Hammer.

Pep club officers were Judy Rhine (president), Ruth Morgan (vice-president), Rachael Gorthy (secretary), and Tina Johnson (treasurer).

Rosedale's service clubs are organized to do just what the name implies, and the pictures to the right and below illustrate some of their many activities. At the right Mr. George W. Hawks, Terry Smith, Sparky Needham, Carolyn Teany, and Judy Stoll are pictured at Topeka, where they attended a conference on the effects of smoking.

Entertaining the faculty with a tea was one of the many services of the senior high Y-Teens this year. Left, Billie Jo Breckenridge serves refreshments to one of the faculty members, Mrs. Phoebe May. Shown on the following pages are the Hi-Y and Y-Teen organizations, Rosedale's other service groups, who strive for the same high goals of service to the school, to the community, and to humanity through example and by service projects during the year.

GOOD MUSIC SPEAKS-

Creating a more formal atmosphere than many of the other organizations at Rosedale is the orchestra, which has a membership of approximately fifty-five students.

Under the direction of Mr. William Stoskopf, the orchestra plays at graduation exercises and many of the school programs. The highlights of the year for the orchestra, however, are the spring and winter concerts.

(president), and Linda Peterson (secretary).

THE UNIVERSAL LANGUAGE!

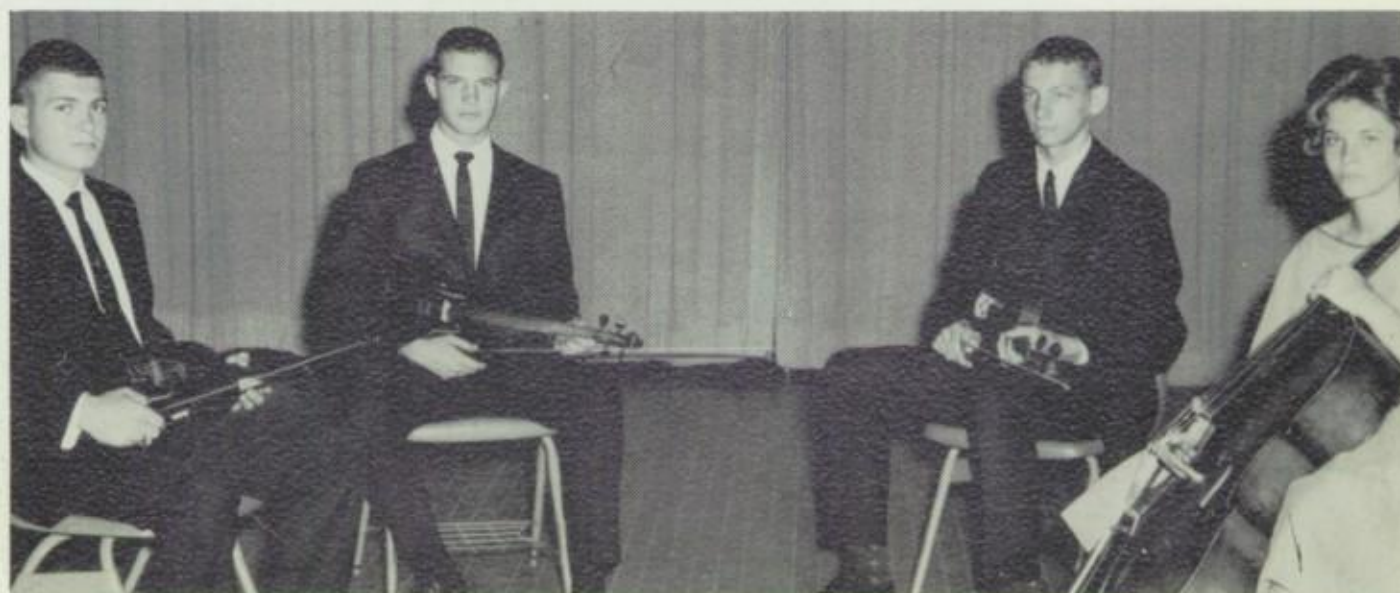

Not only does the group spend an hour each day during class time practicing, but a good many hours are put in by the orchestra before school begins in the morning. Special groups, such as the brass sextet and string quartet, spend time after school rehearsing for special programs.

In concerts and special programs the group is augmented by selected members of the band, particularly in the brass and woodwind sections. The orchestra made one of its appearances with the vocal groups at the league festival.

HARD as it may be to believe, some of those husky players on the football team were once kindergartners at Maccochaque grade school. The past thirteen years have made quite a difference in the members of the class of '64.

SPORTS

THE MEN BEHIND THE TEAM.

GLENN HOY

Rosedale's Wildcats this year overcame a sputtering offense and a wobbly defense to win two league games and better last year's record. The 'Cats were troubled all season by an inability to score. Lack of speed and weight were two important reasons for the Wildcats' downfall. Only twice could the 'Cats manage a strong enough attack to put the game on ice and pull out a victory.

The Wildcats started the season with two losses, being blanked by Junction City, 7-0, and Ward, 20-0. Their first league game with Bonner was one of ups and downs. After seeing an early lead posted by the Braves, the 'Cats found daylight and sped to a 13-7 victory. The Olathe-Rosedale clash was a defensive battle. Alan Gorthy, senior fullback, and Orville Morrow, junior place kicker, pulled the game out as the Wildcats overcame the Eagles, 7-6.

The Cats were blanked in five of their nine games and were able to score only once in the Turner game, going down, 26-6. The last game proved to be the best offensively, when the Cats took on the Westport Tigers. The 'Cats opened the scoring when Danny Davies, junior quarterback, shot through the middle for a 69-yard TD. He scored twice more in the game on plunges from one yard out. The Tigers held the advantage though, after picking up several Rosedale fumbles, and pushed back the Wildcats for a 34-21 win.

Davies and Carter Burns, junior halfback, led the squad in scoring with 18 points each. Gorthy added six, Morrow two, and John Buck, sophomore place kicker, three.

Rosedale had a fine defensive effort in several games. The defense operated in spurts and was troubled by inability to stop the opposition in a broken field run. Dennis Scheer, Bob Butler, and Rick Roberts, all seniors, led the defensive charge. The best efforts came in the Junction City and Olathe games.

The 'Cats ended with a 2-7 overall record and 2-3 league record. They placed fourth in the EKL.

Mr. Glenn Hoy coached the boys again this year and was assisted by Mr. Bill Sipes, Mr. David Crockett, Mr. Rollin Wanamaker, and Mr. Noel Martin.

The boys played hard in their ball games and because most of the squad is composed of sophomores and juniors, the 'Cats could overcome mistakes and prove to be a league winner next year.

WILDCATS IN ACTION

Carter Burns (upper left), Rosedale halfback, avoids Olathe's Barry Walters (15) and breaks away for a long gain. Danny Davies (above), Wildcat quarterback, bulls his way through the Eagles' forward wall. Rosedale won 7-6.

Alan Gorthy, fullback, runs up the middle as Dennis Scheer (71) and Steve Wiedner block Pat Moyer (63) and Dennis Prater (23). Walters (15) looks on as teammate Doug Jones makes the tackle. Gorthy scored the 'Cat's lone TD.

Davies (11) hurls an aerial to Burns (22) for a 20-yard gain. Covering the play is Jerry Hibberd (25). Looking on are Aldridge (60) and Jim Arendale (73).

Gorthy, below, faces Prater and Dan Aldridge (60) in a tight situation.

Gorthy tries to pick up needed yardage in the Junction City game. He is stopped short by Jerry Heck (16), Terry Haden (15), and David Rouse (80). Coming in to help are Warren Adams (65) and Ray Horton (41). Looking on for the Wildcats are Danny Schmidt (50) and Carter Burns (22).

PRESENTING THE 1963 TEAMS

Rosedale's B-team, right, heavy with sophomores, compiled a 4-3-1 record and tied for first in the EKL. Those of the junior varsity players who received their varsity letter were Gary Boyce, James Courtney, Buddy Lawson, Mark Quass, Rex Shorten, Steve Wiedner, and Wayne Williams.

The freshmen, below, completed a 4-3 season record and should be in good shape for the B-team next year.

The boys pictured above formed the nucleus of the Wildcats' team this year. Danny Davies and Ron Shorten played the guard positions, while Bill Carter and Duane Murray controlled the forward posts. Jim Ramsey was the center for his third year of varsity ball. All had a hand in some of the stunning upsets this season, and proved their ability as all-around basketball players. Davies was top scorer for the 'Cats this year, and Murray pulled down more caroms than any other Rosedale player. Below are shown David Gardner (left), Doug Brown (center), and Robert Long, student managers.

Rosedale's roundball squad didn't win any trophies or titles this year but they did prove their worth as a good team. Although the 'Cats started the season with two losses, they soon found the right court and downed the Bonner Braves in the Christmas tournament. They lost the next two tournament games to Ottawa and Turner. The 'Cats again found the range and pulled off a stunning upset against top seeded Bishop Miege, only to have Ottawa, number one contender for the league crown, ruin the great victory the following week with a 58-41 walloping.

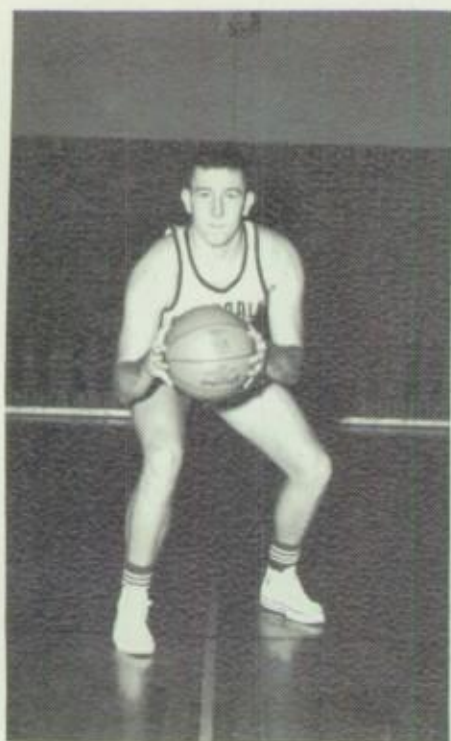

As the season moved on the 'Cats gained experience and squeezed by Olathe and once again gave Bonner a beating. The most surprising game of the year came when Rose-dale surprised Sumner by dropping the Spartans by the handsome margin of 10 points, 59-49.

Argentine, Rosedale's old rival, jumped high and shot sure in downing the 'Cats in an exciting EKL battle. Turner emulated Argentine, and the 'Cats were losing any chance of an EKL title. Ottawa's Cyclones blew hard against the Wildcats for a victory, and Rosedale started looking for a way out of the hole. In the next game it came. Olathe fell at the hands of Rosedale. Again the Eagles were hard to shake off, but the Wildcats were determined. Bonner was dropped for the third time and Rosedale was all ready for another victory, only to see the Argentine Mustangs eke out a 67-65 win. Rosedale came back in their last regular season game and defeated Turner to kill all chances the Bears had of winning a first place tie in the league. The win also gave the Wildcats revenge for the two earlier defeats by the Bears. In their first regional game against Shawnee Mission East Lancers, Rosedale was stabbed for a 50-44 loss. East went to the finals only to lose to overpowering Wyandotte.

Rosedale finished near the 500 mark, and all-in-all had a good season. Although the 'Cats fell short in several EKL games, they pulled some stunning upsets. Danny Davies contributed much to the Wildcat cause, and will be back next year to lead the Wildcats' try for an EKL title. Duane Murray, playing for his first year, was the mainstay on the team and his rebounding and outside shooting helped win several close games. Jim Ramsey and Orville Morrow, along with Greg Elliott, held down the center and forward spots. Morrow had his best night in varsity action against Olathe when he pumped in 22 points. Ramsey had some good performances. Last but not least on the squad was Rosedale's flashy little guard, Ron Shorten. Shorten's dribbling and defensive power won Rosedale several games. He was tops defensively against Shawnee Mission East in a losing cause. Although not a great shot from the field, he was invaluable as a guard.

Next year Rosedale will have a group of reserves coming up from the ranks. Some have had varsity action and they should provide a good season in their bid for the league title.

Rosedale's B-team finished their season with an impressive 12-3 record and a first place in the EKL. The two reserve losses, both to Sumner, were close. The 'Cats were also dropped by Ottawa once. They proved they were a tough team and should be in good condition for varsity action next year.

Gary Nutt was a standout this year for the team. He was a regular starter and supplied plenty of board strength, as well as being high point man in several games. Gary Boyce, Rex Shorten, and Chuck Miller also supported the Wildcat cause, and all gave outstanding performances with good ball control and rebounding.

"1984" STUDENT COUNCIL PRODUCTION

"1984" depicted life in a dictatorial country of the future. Mr. James Shepherd directed, assisted by Richard Horn and Pat Kreisman, stage managers. The plan dealt with an area ruled by "Big Brother," who twisted the minds of his followers to believe exactly what he wished them to believe.

Above, JoAnna Shipley and Scott Mummaw enjoy the delicacies of coffee and sugar in their apartment, free of the telscreen. Below, held by guards Ed Rolland and Mathew Lewis, Scott Mummaw is being persecuted by Earl Trussell, one of "Big Brother's" leaders.

Trying to be secretive about his hiding places, the Miser (Earl Trussell) is amazed when La Fleche (Jim Hughes) discovers a hidden pocket. Crafty La Fleche was the only person who knew the Miser's hiding places, and he used his cleverness to out-fox the old man.

The use of putty make-up helped to make Trussell look miserly and Frosine (JoAnna Shipley) look the part of a busy-body, as shown in this side view. Frosine was on the Miser's side, trying to get him married, but actually she hoped to be rewarded by some of the Miser's cash.

IT'S FOOTBALL TIME; LET'S GET READY!!!

Fall brings football, and football brings cheerleaders. To the spectators, the cheerleaders' movements may seem spontaneous, but actually the girls have worked many hours to perfect routines.

Band members busy themselves by marching up and down Booth Street before making their first appearance of the year. Looks like Sumner's cheating! That tuba's resting on his knee!

Now to get the field ready. Rosedale's "climbers," aided by "groundmen," decorate the goal posts. To keep out peeping Toms, several workers team together and hang the tarps on the fence. Don't worry, Mr. Martin. They'll get them up eventually. Can't have a football game without yard lines, so here comes Rosedale's own personal line marker. But amid all this hustle and hurry to get the work done, there are always those on the reserve list. This anxious fellow has his streamer in hand just waiting for orders on where to hang it.

Finally the big night is here and the majorettes strut, proudly leading the band. These girls spent many hours preparing for their halftime routines. Then the game begins. Keep your eye on the ball! Rosedale had its share of disappointments this season, but this determined Rosedalian is on his way to prove that every touchdown counts!

SPORTS SPECTACULAR-1964

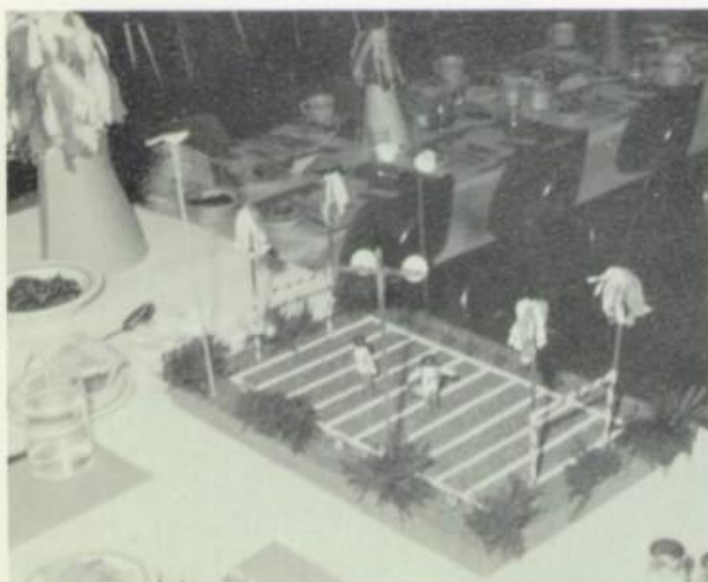

The annual Athletic Banquet this year was centered around the theme, "Sports Spectacular." This is one way in which the Pep club honors the athletes of football, basketball, track, and golf. On the right Miss Linda Collins, Pep club president, poses with Mr. Ralph Brightwell, club sponsor. Miss Collins was mistress of ceremonies. Left, Mr. Chris Burford, Kansas City Chiefs' lineman, who was the main speaker.

schools spoke briefly commending Rose-dale on its athletic program. The head coaches then introduced their team

decorations were colorful green and white miniature megaphones and pom-poms. Sheets of green paper with "R" cutouts made attractive placemats.

THEY SERVE, TOO!

Working no less hard than the school's other cheering squads, are the junior high cheerleaders. Though the Pep club which these girls lead is small in size, they work long hard hours to perfect their routines. Their one advantage this year, however, was that they were cheering for a first place team.

Due to a lack of space on the Pep club's page, it was necessary to picture the girls here.

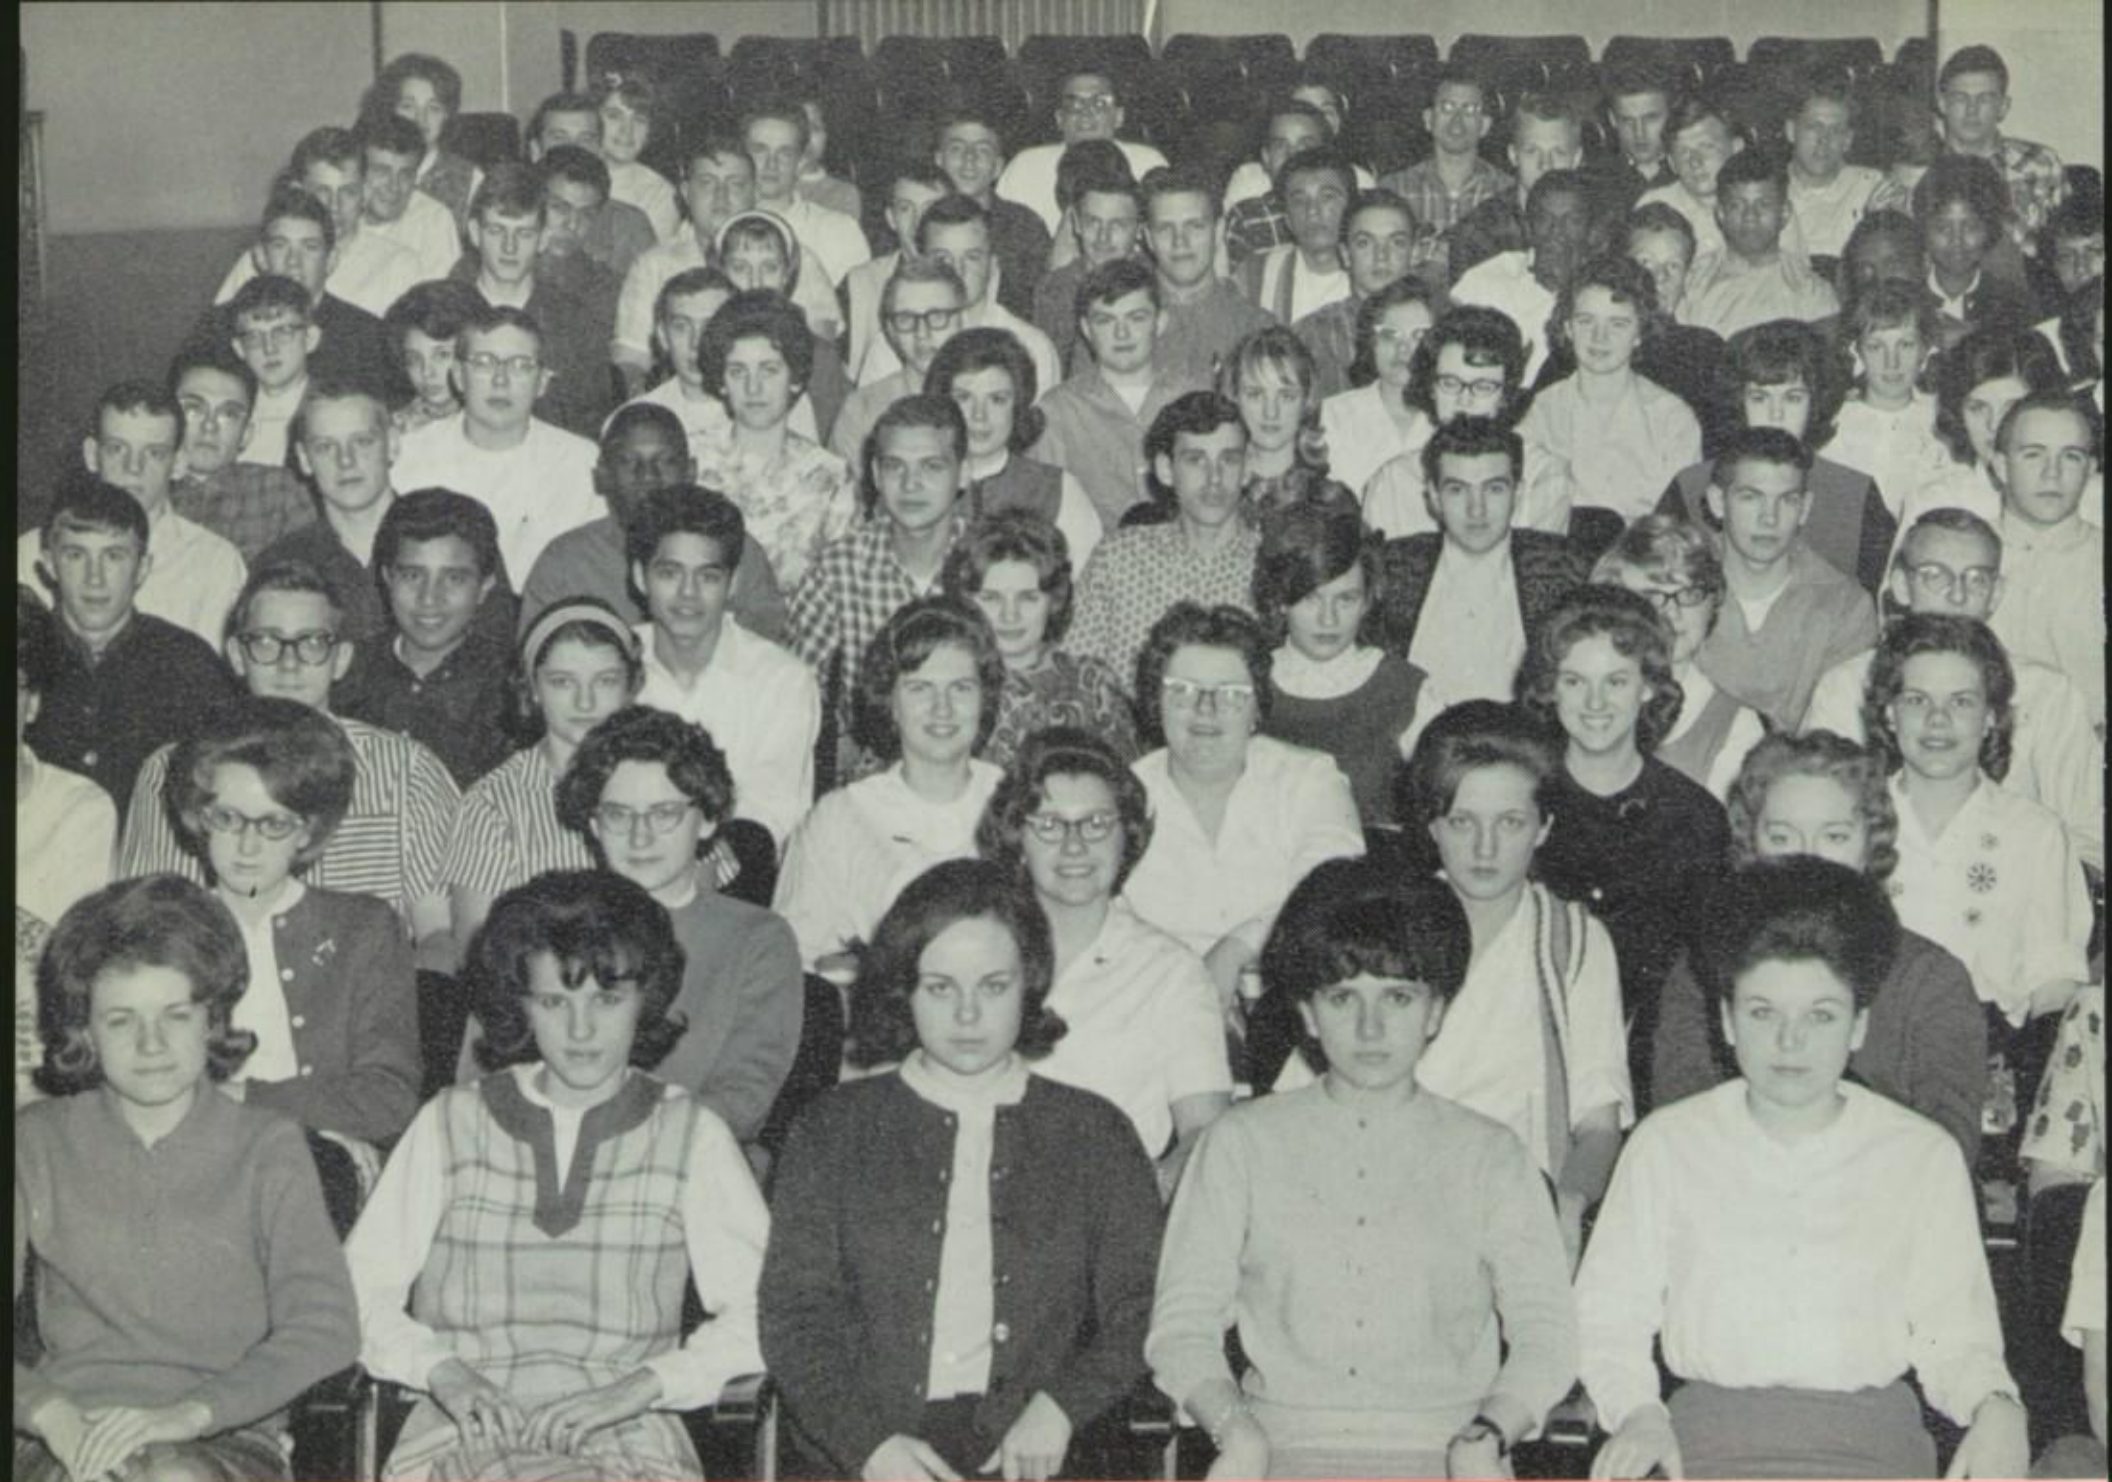

As much a part of Rosedale are the members of its custodial staff, who are on duty day and night. It is their task to keep things clean and operating efficiently. These six men and one woman are familiar faces here, and good friends of Rosedale's student body and faculty members.

Also important to Rosedale's student body and administration is the cafeteria staff. These women work long hours in the preparation and serving of well balanced meals. Mrs. Ione George will have completed her ninth year as cafeteria director, a timely and often worrisome job. Her workers are pictured at the left: standing, left to right, are Mrs. Mary Duroche, Mrs. Mary Boyce, Mrs. Treva Anderson, Mrs. Winona Lewis and Mrs. Beulah Cook. Seated, left to right, are Mrs. Freda Leftwich, Mrs. Helene Booth, Mrs. Teresa Young, Mrs. Rose Duncan, and Mrs. Ann Boyd.

A momentous occasion—all of the class of '64 together, as was the second grade class at Snow school (opposite page). Though there are changes, many of the faces can still be recognized as the same ones who once were proud graduates of the second grade.

SENIORS

FROM THE PRESIDENT

Soon the class of 1964 will be leaving Rosedale high school for the last time. Many underclassmen will not miss the graduating seniors, concerned as they are by the thought that they'll be seniors someday. This year's graduating class will tend to be forgotten before too many months are past, but that must not be, for they are now a part of the school and its history.

High school is over for this group; do they have what it takes now to leave, and go out on their own? Never before has youth been forced to shoulder such responsibilities; never before has there been so much to do, and so much expected. Our age is one of conflict, of constant wars, of threats of nuclear annihilation, of revolts for rights in our own nation. The problems of this world will soon be handed over to our youth. Today's seniors are tomorrow's leaders. In a short time, the diploma will be in our hands and the responsibilities will be ours.

We, as seniors, will always remember our high school years, the teachers and students we learned to know so well. But the time has now come for us to step forward and accept our heritage, as students and as Americans. We will be ready.

Marcus Terrass

With the end of May comes the realization that we, the members of the class of 1964, will be ending our high school careers, careers marked by memories of people and events. Although the details of these events fade into the background, there are highlights which will remain forever with us.

In the pages of our high school history, as well as in our personal lives, we have recorded the loss of our nation's leader; and to a great extent this loss poses a challenge which we must accept if we are to fulfill our roles as future leaders.

Because of the wise guidance we have received during the past twelve years, we feel ready and able to assume any new responsibilities, confident in our destiny and the destiny of America.

Entering the seventh grade marked the beginning of a new but wonderful experience—the world of high school. Here we continued our education, but deepened our concern for preparing ourselves for the future. No longer present was the comforting, familiar face of our grade school teacher, but in its place were several men and women prepared to answer our unending questions and help solve our problems.

As we glance back at our first weeks at Rosedale, we are able to laugh at ourselves, wandering confused but eager through the echoing halls.

During our first two years we witnessed Eastern Kansas league football and basketball championship teams, as a result of the coaching of Mr. Walter Davies and Mr. William Heitholt, respectively.

We were proud eighth graders when one of our home-room teachers, Mr. Art Lawrence, was selected to the Wyandotte county sports Hall of Fame. Our class was again pleased when two members, Marsha Olson and Carlyn Wright, won the annual Pep Club talent show.

Banging and hammering accented the teachers' words during class while workers were nearing completion of the third floor of the "new" building, an addition to the facilities already completed when we entered as seventh graders.

Ninth grade found us at the top class position in junior high with Jim Hughes elected to lead as class president. Included in our prominent memories of this year are second place in the Eastern Kansas league freshman basketball tournament, the junior high Pep Club dance, Mr. Eldon Milburn's advancement to head varsity basketball coach, and sweeping victories of three freshmen, Rick Roberts, Bob Stoskopf, and Jo Anna Shipley, for the first three places in the annual magazine sale.

As we entered senior high school and were accepted into the ranks of upperclassmen, we continued to mature and realize the seriousness of a high school education. Along with additional studies came the opportunity to become active in school plays, clubs of all sorts, and senior high sports. Many happy times were experienced by Pep Club members as they worked together to achieve the spirit needed to support the Wildcat teams.

Numerous changes took place during our sophomore year: Mr. F. L. Schlagle, superintendent of schools, announced his retirement effective after the end of the year; Mr. Carter L. Burns, Rosedale principal, was moved to an executive position on the Board of Education, and was succeeded the following year by Mr. Walter L. Davies, football coach and American History teacher; a football scoreboard was purchased and installed; a $15,000 light control board, designed by Mr. James Shepherd, drama coach, and other lights were installed in the auditorium; Mr. Roy Terflinger, eighth grade history teacher, retired after 35 years of teaching at Rosedale; and the Wildcat band received the long-awaited and hard-worked-for "okay" to purchase new band uniforms.

The two most outstanding years in high school were the junior and senior years, filled as they were with a large number of activities and important events. One of the prominent events in our junior year was the success of the junior play, "The Desperate Hours" which enabled us to increase our funds for the Prom later on in the year. Susan George and Richard Horn did a fine job of portraying the mother and father of a family held captive in their own home by three escaped convicts.

As juniors we also sponsored mixers after games to help finance "Three Coins in a Fountain," the Junior-Senior Prom given by the class of '64 in honor of the seniors. No one will forget the months of preparation and hard work contributed by everyone to make the dance a success. Converting the cafeteria into a city with a gay sidewalk cafe, building and decorating a fountain with running water, and special decoration of the entrance way all blended to produce an elegant but cozy atmosphere for the evening. Seeing the enjoyment and satisfaction of those who attended was enough reward for the many hours of work.

Another eagerly anticipated experience was that of selecting a class ring. In keeping with the modern times, our ring model was called the "Titan II," unique in that the center of the ring contained a Wildcat crest with "Rosedale" written under it instead of the conventional "R" or "RHS."

Another "first" was marked during our junior year. Toker Ekren, an exchange student from Turkey, was the first American Field Service student to come to Rosedale. Toker fit into the school's activities very well, and was admired by everyone.

After over forty years of teaching service to Rosedale, Miss Ruth Vawter, Spanish and geography teacher, retired from her profession. Many of the seniors became acquainted with Miss Vawter in the seventh grade in geography class, while others studied Spanish under her direction in later years.

In November of our junior year a ceremony was held to rededicate the Rosedale arch in honor of veterans from World War I and World War II. The arch, patterned after the Arch of Triumph in Paris, was originally dedicated after World War I.

The height of our high school career, our senior year, arrived before we knew it. The athletes were honored by the Pep Club, students, parents and friends, at the annual Athletic Banquet. This year we found ourselves the guests of honor at the Junior-Senior Prom, an event which we ourselves hosted the year before. Rosedale was again host to an American Field Service student, this year a girl, Margareta Nilson, from Sweden. Margareta took an active part in several school clubs and was elected president of the Spanish Club. She, too, found no hardships in adjusting to life in America and at Rosedale.

The senior class contained students talented in various fields—scholastic, music, sports, dramatics, debate, and literary—who brought recognition and awards to the class and to Rosedale.

Marcus Terrass displayed outstanding scholastic ability after he came to Rosedale in his freshman year. A straight-one student, Marcus has been enrolled in advanced classes of math, science, English and social science. He, along with four other seniors, Linda Ragg, Vincent May, Richard Horn, and Kenneth Iles, received a letter of commendation for high performance on the National Merit Scholarship qualifying test given in the spring of the junior year.

Many seniors were active in instrumental and vocal music and participated in EKL competition. Those involved in vocal music included Sue Dunn, Carol Lambert, Linda Talbott, Virginia Tillery, Georgeann Vergenz, Roger Anderson, David Barr, Eugene Beets, Rudy Florez, and Leonard Pacheco. Senior instrumentalists included Vincent May, Martha Grimes, Jerre Prohaska, Connie Rappold, Jo Anna Shipley, and Lois Waldrop. Minnie Dominguez, Steve Nance, and Bob Stoskopf were connected with both music departments.

Although we have not had championship football or basketball teams during senior high, several boys were willing to spend many after-school hours practicing hard in order to be good sports representatives of Rosedale. Senior lettermen standouts involved in the grueling work of football since their freshman year were Bob Butler, Bill Carter, Robert Cupp, Alan Gorthy, and Rick Roberts. Dennis Scheer, a senior transfer letterman from Shawnee Mission West, proved valuable as tackle for the Wildcat team. James Ramsey was the only sophomore to play on the varsity basketball squad. Through our sophomore, junior, and senior years, Ramsey was aided by Ron Shorten, Bill Carter, and Duane Murray. Marcus Terrass, Leonard Pacheco, Duane Murray, and Nick Macias held key spots on the cross country team, and contributed their efforts to rename Rosedale as EKL cross country champions.

Several seniors have displayed their talents in the drama and speech departments. Carolyn Kent's main interest through her senior high years has been debate. Another debator, Jim Hughes, was also a "dramatist." Jim appeared in several school plays and was president of the Rosedale Thespian troupe. Other Thespian members included David Barr, Susan George, Richard Horn, Jo Anna Shipley, and Lois Waldrop. Scott Mummaw made his first appearance in "1984," the Student Council play for our senior year. Mummaw portrayed the lead role of Winston Smith with deep feeling and effectiveness. His sweetheart, Julia, portrayed by Jo Anna Shipley, also gave an effective performance. Jim Hughes, Susan George, and Henry Williams' performance in supporting roles all blended to make the play a success.

In the literary field we counted many able seniors. Rosedale finalists in the Optimist club essay contest were Alan Gorthy and Carolyn Kent, who wrote essays featuring Marcus Terrass and Linda Morgan, respectively, as an outstanding senior. Susie Cornelius, annual editor, spent numerous hours of work preparing this book for publication, assisted by Sharon Johnston, Pat Kreisman, Linda Morgan, Jo Anna Shipley, Steve Harrison, and other members of the publications class. Susie Cornelius, Linda Morgan, and Jo Anna Shipley were selected in their junior year to membership in Quill and Scroll, an international honorary society for high school journalists. The people in the publications class have all worked together to produce an interesting paper and yearbook.

Rosedale's R-club, under the leadership of Alan Gorthy, provided a successful insurance program for athletes by selling refreshments during basketball games. The Safety Club, directed by Marcus Terrass, has worked extremely hard and well to promote driving safety among Rosedale students and friends. The club has received national and local recognition for its work.

Miss Linda Collins, this year's Pep Club president, set an enthusiastic example all Pep Club members should follow to make a better club. The club this year adopted white jackets with "Rosedale" written in green script across the back to replace the sweaters. The Pep Club worked hard in its attempts to keep the spirit and enthusiasm of the students high.

The summer after our junior year, outstanding seniors spent at least a week at "leadership camps." Carolyn Kent and Jo Anna Shipley attended Girls' State, while representatives to Boys' State included Bill Carter, Vincent May, and Marcus Terrass. Bob Butler, Alan Gorthy, and James Ramsey were selected to attend the Fellowship of Christian Athletes camp in Colorado.

Our class has been successfully guided through six years at Rosedale by five capable persons. Marcus Terrass proved his ability to lead by carrying out his duties as president of our sophomore class and as senior class president. The past class presidents were Bill Carter (seventh grade), Payne Mendenhall (eighth grade), Jim Hughes (ninth grade), and James Ramsey (junior).

Although we are not able to mention all who have contributed in some way to the success of the class of '64 and to Rosedale, we have brought those names to your attention which we feel deserve recognition.

Now we pause and ask ourselves: What do these past six years add up to? The final total amounts to the climax of our senior year — graduation. Graduation means parting:

Parting with friends we have made and with whom we have worked . . .
 Parting with teachers and counselors who have been our inspiration and our friends . . .
 Parting with the familiar halls, rooms and lockers we have come to know so well . . .
 Parting with a way of life, its people, clubs, and organizations . . .
 Parting with, but never forgetting, Rosedale!

DEWITT

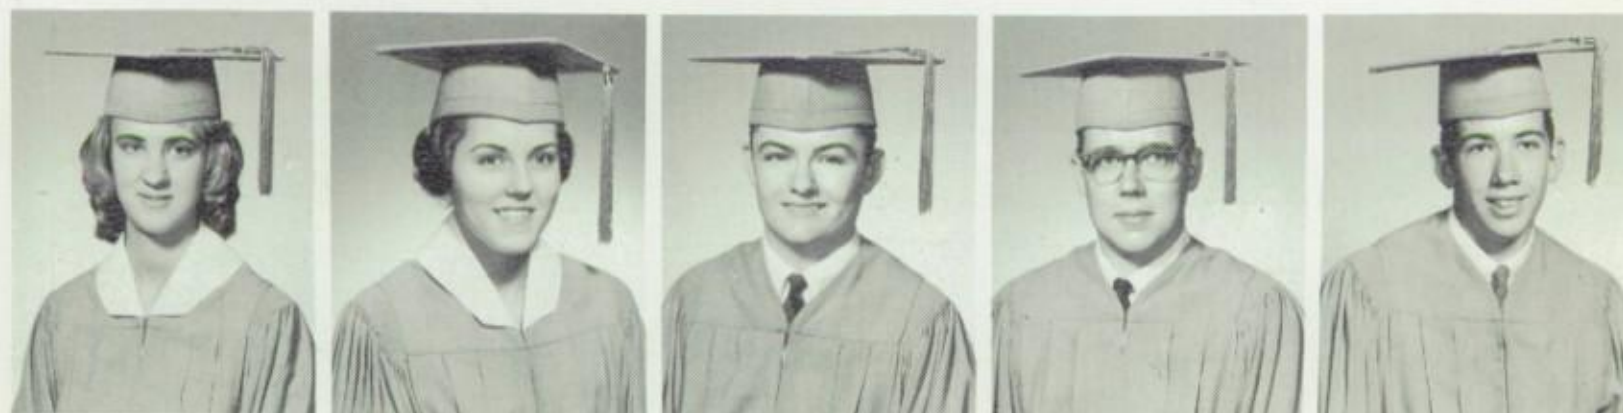

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The nineteen members of the class of 1964 pictured here have achieved the highest academic award that the high school can bestow upon one of its students—membership in the National Honor society. These seniors, selected from 31 candidates ranking in the upper 25 per cent of the class scholastically, represent the top 15 per cent of the 1964 graduating class. Final selection of honor students is based on the students' academic record, scholarship tests, participation in school activities, and ratings of teachers and other National Honor candidates.
